

District Assessment Health Checklist

Area	For each statement, check the box to the right that most closely describes your district.	Describes my district	Mostly describes my district	Somewhat describes my district	Not much like my district	Not like my district at all
Planning	The district has a multi-year district plan that is visible to district leadership and reviewed and adjusted at least annually.
	The district has a multi-year membership plan that is accessible by district leaders, and reviewed and adjusted at least annually.
Committees	At least 75% of district committees are functioning committees, not committees of one - just a committee chair.
	PDGs serve as district committee chairs.
Assistant Governors	AGs are engaged with clubs and have clear job descriptions/expectations.
	The district has developed and conducts a formal training program for AGs.
Clubs and Membership	Attendance at district conferences regularly exceeds 10% of the district membership.
	More than 85% of the district's PEs attend PETS.
	The district has formed at least one new club in the past 2 years.
	The district has written criteria that identifies clubs for recognitions/awards.
	The district has one or two clubs that are on "Life Support."
Public Image Communication	The district has a website that is updated at least monthly.
	The district uses social media channels to promote events and Rotary.
	The district has a newsletter that is distributed monthly.
Leadership and Succession	The DG/DGE /DGN meet and communicate on a regular basis.
	For the past 3 years, the district has had more than one DG candidate who has interviewed with the nominating committee.
	The district has a defined way or ways to identify rising stars and potential leaders in the district.
Foundation Giving	The district's per capita giving meets or exceeds $100 per member.
	At least 25% of Rotarians in the district contribute to the Rotary Foundation through Rotary Direct.
	The district has fewer than 10% of clubs that are non-contributors to The Rotary Foundation.
PDG Council	The district has a PDG Council that meets periodically
	On a scale from "Supportive," to "Interfering," to "Controlling:" "Supportive" best describes the district's PDG Council.					